Our contemporary of the Banner calls the attention of the city lawgivers to the necessity of a reformation of Market house regulations, with a view to put a period to the usjust combinations whereby the masses of our city are muleted in double and treble prices for almost everything they purchase to est. We add our appeal for prompt and decisive action, such as will place the market out of the control of speculators. The thing can be done; and it ought to be done.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE,-We have received the October number of Leonard Scott & Co's Amer-Ican reprint of Blackwood's Magazine. Its contents are very entertaining, the opening piece being addition I chapters of Bulwer's Novel, Book Sellers, Book-Binders and Blank "What will he do with it ? "

THE ECLECTIC MAGIZINE -The November number of this invaluable periodical is already on our table. It is as usual well filled with choice selections from the foreign press, literary and miscellaneous. The embellishment of this number is a charming portrait of the charming English author,

It gives us pleasure to commend both of the above magazines to the attention of our readers.

Dusty Miller bore his colors to the front, with Queen B. ss, Cerva, M. Dobler, and the Plush colt following nearly in the order named; Odd Trick, Fright, Emulator, Zig-zig, Warlock, Prioress, and Pooule lying in the middle of the ruck. These po-itions were unchanged until reaching the ditch, when Cerva rushed to the front, Queen Bess being by in close attendance opon her, with Odd Trick third, Warlock and the Plush colt forming the next lot. At the bushes the pace began to tell, and Warlock and Poodle dropped back, and Cerva resigned the leid to Queen Bess. As they descended the hill Odu Trick, Emulator, and Zig-zag also disappeared from the front. On approaching the cords, Queen Bess, with El H kim at her nock, still held a slight lead, with Priore-s running by nerself on the far side, third-Fright, Zig-zag, Warlock, and Emulator showing in front of the ruck.

One of the most exciting Cossrewitch finishes ever seen then ensued. Prioress half way up the cords seemed to be about coming in alone, but the thuy jockeys El Hakim and Queen Bess made a determined set-to; and the judge unable to separate the first three, pronounced a dead heat with Priorese, Queen Boss, and El Hokim. Fright was next, a length and a half behind them, Ziz-zig was fifth, about a length in advance of Warlock, who was sixth, and Martinet seventh; Emulator and Saunterer headed the next lot that straggled in. One of his Parishoners. The Buffalo (N. Y.) Republic tells the following story of the Rev. HENEY WARD BEECHER, a cler-gyman in New York city: Rev. Henry Ward Buecher, dressed in very comnon clothes was studying human nature as exhibited in the bighways and by . ways of New York. In the course of his philosophic peregrinations, he went into a mock suction shop. He stood awhile on ent ring, and reflected, doubtless, how any one could be so lost to all sense of truth and honesty se the auctioneer in question, endeavoring to palm off his worthless trash to the inexperienced in city ways, as good and valuable, and finally the auctioneer called out: "Mr. Beecher, why don't you bid?" He was greatly astonished, as we can well imagine, at finding himself known in this place, and as he had supposed, in his purposely careless dress. He immediately left, and started for the residence of one of the members of the church in the neigh-ornood, and requested him, as an act of kindness, to go down and enquire of that person who had sold himself to Satan for the love of gain, how it was that he knew him in his disguise. neighbor kindly consented, and on entering the Peter Fank " shop he addr ssed the auctioneer: " How is it that you know Het.ry Ward Beecher so well as to be able to recognize him in his dis-"How do I know him? Why I have been a rominent member of his congregation for the last
